Computer Classes

Click on the name of the library to view their calendar and program descriptions.

The Carbon Valley, Centennial Park, Erie, Evans and Farr locations offer computer help by appointment. Call your local library to get the individual attention you need to answer your questions.

With the exception of Introduction to Computers, basic mouse and keyboarding experience is required for all classes.

All district computer classes are free.

(R) indicates registration for that class is required.
